BUD O'BRYAN

Is Out After Sheriff's Place in Daviess.

Bud O'Bryan, of Owensboro, is a candidate for sheriff of Daviess County, and if the Democrats of his county desire to reward one of their most loyal and deserving party men he will surely be nominated. He served as receiver of the Asylum here with credit for nearly four years, always supporting his home men in their aspirations. He did valiant service for Judge E. P. Taylor and Josh Griffith in their contests and added many votes to their support in this county.

His home paper, the Messenger, gives him this strong and deserved endorsement:

J. C. ("Bud") O'Bryan is today announced for sheriff. He shows qualifications for the office that are peculiar to him. As a Democrat no ones record is better. He began as a hustling Democrat when only seventeen on election days and since then has been a hard worker. He was born and reared at West Louisville and is thirty-three years of age. He was never before a candidate for a nomination, but was placed on the Democratic ticket, by petition, for constable in Owensboro in 1897. He defeated his opponent by two to one. In 1900 he resigned when appointed receiver at the Western asylum. Last September he resigned that place, after having given the best of satisfaction to two superintendents and the board of commissioners. The latter passed a set of resolutions recommending him highly. He was an original Goebel man and by his early and constant work for that great Democrat he won his lasting gratitude for success in the city of Owensboro and the county of Daviess. Had it not been for the assassin's bullet Mr. O'Bryan would not be seeking the elective office of sheriff. Even when at Hopkinsville, he always returned here to register and vote. He has been traveling for a St. Louis business house, but has been making his home here and henceforth he will devote himself to the winning of his race. He is in every way qualified for the office and on these claims he submits his claims to his fellow Democrats.

BUYS RESIDENCE.

John Stites Contracts to Pay $13,000 For the Residence of Mrs R. Y. Moore.

John Stites yesterday contracted to buy the home of Mrs. Robert K. Moore for $13,000. The place is located on the opposite side of the drive from the tenance to Eastern Park, and its exact location is 1604 Cherokee boulevard. The area of the place is 110x260 feet, and the house is a three-story brick. Mr. Stites will move to the place some time in August. Two months ago he sold his present home at 1120 Second street to Dr. H. N. Leavell, and the latter will take possession soon after Mr. Stites moves to the boulevard.—Courier Journal.

Cheerfully Recommended For Rheumatism.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c, 50c, $1.00 Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Sounds sensational, doesn't it? But the statement is justified by the facts, for we are going to sell $10 and $12.50 suits for $5; $15 and $16.50 suits for $7.50; $18.50 to $22 suits for $10; and $25 to $35 suits for $15.

Of course these are extreme values—other suits will not be sold quite as cheap. There is not a tailor made suit in the stock, however, that has not been reduced more or less. Every one of the garments in this sale is from our regular stock and the first prices are what we originally marked the garments to sell for.

There is Reason for all Things, and the simple reason for taking such a tremendous loss on our stock of Women's Tailor-Made Suits is because we have too many of them—close to 100 Spring and Summer Wool Suits on hand—that's by far too many and we believe by making such radical price cuts we will clear them out in short order. This much we are positive of, if the women of Hopkinsville realize how cheap we are offering superior made and stylish suits, not one would remain in stock after a day's selling.

If we told you the actual loss we are taking in these suits the figures would undoubtedly amaze you, but we look on the other side of it, and figure how much we will get out of the suits plus the value of the advertisement—besides our method of doing business permits of carrying no stock over from one season to another.

Do not for a moment imagine because the price has been cut so deep these suits are in any way undesirable. On the contrary—there is not a single garment but what was bought for this spring's business and the identical styles are being worn today by fashionable women.

Frankel's BUSY STORE

Facts About This Sale: There are over 98 suits in this sale. More than 20 different styles. The miss of 14 or the stout woman requiring 40 bust measure can choose from the great variety of styles. In a great many instances the tailor got more for making the suit than we ask for it.

We include in this offering every woman and Misses Suit that we have in the house. If you were in the store yesterday or a week ago and priced a suit come down this week and you will be surprised for how little it can be bought. Don't fail to come.

The styles are blouse effects, Etons, straight coat suits, military suits, corset-fitting suits, long coat suits, cape suits and tailored suits in dress and walking lengths. The materials English Cheviots, Broadcloths, Serges, Mohairs, Etamines, Covert Cloth, French Voiles, Venetians, Fancy Mixtures, Men's Suitings, and Homespun—all colors among them; the majority are black, blue and brown; also several shades of gray in various fancy mixtures in light and dark shades. Linings and Trimmings—Coats are variously trimmed with self pleats, piping, silk straps, fancy ornaments, self-straps, fancy buttons and some with capes; others plain tailored, sleeves in the newest pouch style, skirts all this season's pleated and kilt effects, trimmed to match the jacket. The coats, with the exception of a very few, are lined with taffeta, the balance being lined with satin. There are plenty styles of all sizes to fit a Miss of 14 or the stout woman with 40 bust measure. Remember, this sale embraces our entire stock of high class tailored cloth suits, not a single garment reserved.
